

Question # 4 EXEMPLARS

Explain your answer using information from the selection and your own ideas.

1

- Has difficulty making connections
- Offers unsupported or illogical judgments or conclusions

because the titanic was marked "unsinkable" and it sunk real bad and broke in half.

2

- Makes simple connections with some explanation
- Offers some reasonable judgments or conclusions with partial support

The Empress of Ireland remains unknown because 2 months after it sank, WWI began

- The war took over all the headlines and the Empress was left unknown

3

- Makes and explains some logical connections
- Offers reasonable judgments and conclusions with adequate reasons and examples

The Titanic is well known and documented because it was the "Unsinkable Ship." It had plenty of time for headlines ~~and~~ and many celebrative were on the Titanic. The lives of Ireland was relatively ~~and~~ unknown because soon after the World War I broke out so it had less time for headlines. The Empress of Ireland was not a ~~luxury~~ ship, a luxurious ship. On board were working class people and the ship was not classified as unsinkable. Also there wasn't as many ~~pass~~

4

- Makes and explains thoughtful and insightful connections
- Offers insightful judgments and conclusions with thoughtful reasons and examples

According to the text, the story of the Empress remains unknown because two months after the crash WWI began, putting all eyes over seas. Unlike the Titanic, the Empress carried the lower working class, not famous wealthy ones. Also I believe that it is ~~some what~~ forgotten because it was such a silly mistake. ~~that led to~~ no one wanted the world to know that procrastination led to the deaths of 102 people in total.